Comptroller Fred Cogrove is the last to respond to the sick roll and is now confined at his home with an illness which is not, however, expected to inconvenience for any length of time. Assistant City Engineer E. W. Pitt is seriously ill and his "chief" is doing double time in order to accomplish the most pressing work.

U. P. Offers Its Old Headquarters for Sale for $110,000

If the present plans go through, about the only officials who will be left in the old headquarters of the Union Pacific Railroad company building Thursday night will be those of the passenger department.

No notice to "quit" has been given the passenger department, but it is looked for any day, as the tables, desks and cases ordered some weeks ago are understood to have arrived.

Tuesday morning the old headquarters building at Ninth and Farnam streets was placarded with the first "For Sale" sign in its history. For a long time officers and directors of the Union Pacific felt loth to sell the property, the policy being not to dispose of real estate holdings in good cities and towns, but as the company owned but three lots at Ninth and Farnam streets, it was decided to put the property on the market. The price is fixed at $110,000, which includes the five-story building.

Several prospective purchasers looked the building over Tuesday morning and all agreed that it is cheap at the price asked. It has trackage on two sides and it is agreed that it is desirable for jobbing of warehouse purposes. The foundation is heavy and the walls strong enough for carrying any load. A house wrecking concern has viewed the property and the representative who made the figures states that the salvage from the building would pay more than one-fourth of the price asked for lots and building.

The interior wood finish of the old headquarters building is mostly black walnut and cherry, much of it two to two and one-half inches in thickness, and it alone is said to be worth many thousands of dollars.

WILL PLACE SIGNPOSTS TO PLATTE RIVER BRIDGE

E. H. Sprague, president of the Omaha Automobile club, will start out this morning early with a supply of sign boards, properly worded, which will be placed along the road from Omaha to Plattsmouth, directing the tourist over the new short route to Plattsmouth, Nebraska City and Kansas City. Later in the day a large part of the club's membership will drive to Plattsmouth to be present at the ceremony of opening the new bridge over the Platte river, making a beautiful new and direct route to points hitherto inaccessible by motor car. The route will be via South Omaha and through Fort Crook.

ATTACKS FAKE ADVERTISING

Dishonest Methods Discussed by Implement Dealers' Head.

SPEAKS FOR A NATIONAL LAW

He Also Advocates One Cent Postage, Government Inspection of Express Companies and Disapproves Parcel Post.

Dishonest advertising should be stopped by law, said President Paul Herpolsheimer, in his annual address to the Mid-West Implement Dealers' association yesterday, and he asked the association to go on record in favor of a national law directed against the practice.

"We are in sad need of a national law," said Mr. Herpolsheimer, "which will compel houses which use the United States mails to furnish the goods as per their advertisements, and not to allow them to advertise one thing and furnish another, or to advertise in a misleading and deceptive manner."

"The national federation has taken the necessary steps to obtain such a law and we should endorse its efforts and prevail upon all senators and legislators to assist in bringing about such a law."

Mr. Herpolsheimer spoke in favor of 1-cent postage, of the use of convicts in road work in the state, of an investigation by the government of the express companies and of action to prevent the adoption by Great Salt of a parcel post. He protested against the action of the western railroads in ruling against the loading of binder twine in mixed cars.

The Cost of Accounting.

An important feature of the president's address was that part touching cost accounting, which has been taken up as an educational program by associations of jobbers, retailers and manufacturers all over the country. The cost accounting system, he explained, is worked out by experts, and will show the dealer the exact relation of his expenses and profits at any time, and if he is losing, will show just how he is losing and suggest the means for stopping the leak.

President Herpolsheimer announced that C. M. Johnson of Rush City, Minn., would give a blackboard talk on cost accounting at Wednesday morning's session.

The convention's business sessions will close Thursday noon.

An impromptu exposition is being held in connection with the convention and the Auditorium is filled with engines, windmills, buggies, plows and other wares.

Opposes Convict-Made Twine.

M. L. Gooseman, secretary of the Mid-West Implement Dealers' association in his annual report, attacked the bill which was before the legislature at its last session, which provided for the erection and maintaining of a binding twine plant at the state penitentiary. He said:

"During the last session the legislature had before it a bill relative to the twine plant at the state penitentiary. We did not have a standing legislative committee, so our president appointed Jacob Bender of Sutton, and Mr. McCarger of Crete, to see what could be done to prevent this measure from being enacted. They were in Lincoln several days and were satisfied that this bill would not be considered any further during that session."

"We feel that for this state to establish a binding twine plant for the purpose of manufacturing twine with convict labor, and to sell the product in direct competition with that of its free citizens and taxpayers who are entitled to all the privileges granted by our constitution is unjust, and we should endorse a strong resolution condemning any such action."

Mr. Gooseman asked that the implement dealers take an interest in politics, especially state issues. "The retail merchants, in general," he said, "and the implement dealers in particular, are so busy trying to meet competition, both real and imaginary, that they woefully neglect to take the interest in politics that they should. This is especially true with state issues. If we intend to gain anything in this line, we will have to get busy."

"The Nebraska State Railway commission is seriously considering the cancellation of all rules providing for reduced rates on returned shipments and if we are going to keep this rule in force we must be present at all public hearings on the subject and write the commission, giving sound reasons why we think the rule should not be cancelled."

The dealers Tuesday night were the guests of the Omaha and Council Bluffs implement and Vehicle club at a smoker. A large number of visitors were in attendance to witness the exhibitions.

NEBRASKA CITY DADS COMING

League of Municipalities to Hold First Session Wednesday.

MEETING LASTS THREE DAYS

Orpheum Party, Banquet and Auto Ride Are Some of the Side Issues of the Convention Which Are Planned.

Arrangements are complete for the reception and entertainment of 200 delegates to the Nebraska League of Municipalities meeting which convenes here today, Thursday and Friday. A desk has been placed in the rotunda of the city hall, and all visitors will register there, beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The first business session will be held at the city hall in the afternoon at 1:30 o'clock when Mayor J. C. Dahman will deliver an address of welcome. Robert P. Starr of Loup City, president of the league, will respond, and following this will give his annual address.

At the conclusion of the business session Wednesday evening the entire delegation will be entertained at the Orpheum theater, where seats have been reserved. A specially presented performance will be staged by the Orpheum circuit.

Thursday afternoon, from 3 to 6 o'clock, the delegates will be taken for an automobile ride about the city and when their appetites are sufficiently whetted and the more lean and hungry looking begin to gaze longingly at the cafes, a banquet will be served them at the Commercial club rooms.

Roscoe C. Ozman, city clerk of Lincoln and secretary of the league, arrived in Omaha Tuesday afternoon to help with the preliminary arrangements for the reception of the delegates. Vice president, C. J. Miles of Hastings is expected with the first delegations this morning.

Several towns in the state that are not members of the league have sent word to the local arrangements committee that they would be presented by several delegates. Each town of the thirty-one which constitute the league will be presented by from one to a dozen men. The program will cover three days and will be an exhaustive study of the more important municipal problems confronting Nebraska cities.

The Great Public Pulse Says: CALUMET

It says "Calumet" — For the critical housewives of America have found that Calumet Baking Powder makes the most appetizing, light, wholesome food — that Calumet is the most economical and dependable of all Baking Powders.

If you, too, Mrs. Housewife, want to learn what Calumet means to you, bake with it just one batch of biscuits. If you don't find it unlike any other — so much greater in leavening power — in uniformity — in purity — return it, and get your money back.

That's all we ask — and think what it means to you to always be sure that each time you bake you will have the most tempting biscuits, pastry, etc. Think of it — the highest quality Baking Powder at a moderate price — the most economical in use. Cheap big can kinds give you quantity, but not quality. High-priced trust brands mean extravagance. For no Baking Powder can be equal in quality to Calumet. Was not that proven when it received the Highest Award at World's Pure Food Exposition?

Don't be deceived — ask for Calumet — and get it.

JEFFERY FARNOL and "THE ROAD"

The success of "The Broad Highway"—and it was a very great success—was due to its appeal to our sense of Romance and Adventure. There is a suggestion about the open road as of something about to happen, a suggestion which Farnol develops most happily, for something does happen.

And so his short story, "The Journey's End," is a story of this same road, or the end of such a road, and the end of a journey thereon, and of a wanderer and what he found at the journey's end. This is the first short story Jeffery Farnol has published since his book made him known. It is a good short story, one of the good short stories in the November CENTURY, but by no means the only one. "Straight Golf," "Syndicating Sarah" and "His Unquiet Ghost," the latter by Charles Egbert Craddock, help to make a most promising start for the eighty-third volume of the
